Snopped in Westerly For His Family

Then Antonio Bianchi Started for Niantic and was Killed by Train—Frank W. Coy Serves Injunction on Stonington Club—Humane Agent Acts—Pension of $24 for Soldier.

Frank W. Coy of Westerly, who is coming to his home suffering from severe injuries sustained by him when being in collision with another train in Elm street, two weeks ago, is the owner of the Burtch building in Stonington, wherein he located the quarters of the Miltuxet club. There has been trouble between the club and the owner of the building for long time over heat and light, and some other details in connection with the rental, and so it is said, the owner of the building has declined to receive the rent due from the club, which has been regularly placed on deposit for that purpose. The Miltuxet club has started to do something that was not sanctioned by the owner of the building. Attempt was made to remove the steam heater to alter one of the side walls. This was considered to be an injury to the building by the owner and Mr. Coy authorized the issuance of an injunction through the law firm of Hull, McGuire & Hull.

The injunction was signed by Judge Ralph Wheeler of the superior court, and is returnable to the next session of the court of common pleas. Service was made upon Charles H. Cowan, president of the club, and upon the members of the executive committee, John H. Ryan, George Robinson and Leonard D. Fairbrother.

The Miltuxet club is purely social, has been in existence for many years and some of the most prominent men of Stonington are included in its membership.

The November session of the superior court for Washington county convened at Kingston today (Monday). It is probable that the criminal term will continue for three weeks. On Monday the grand jury will be in session and on Tuesday consideration will be given of the divorce docket. On Wednesday the petit jury will report for duty and the trial of criminal cases will be commenced.

The grand jurors summoned for the session are: John E. Steadman, Horace S. Webster, E. H. Whitman, George Scheffer, Charles C. Sherman of South Kingston; David F. Phillips, Welcome F. Hilyer, Everett L. Tourgee, Benjamin C. Carpenter of North Kingston; George H. Uiter, Alexander Beattie, Michael F. Sullivan, William J. Peckham, Charles L. Segar, of Westerly; Fred N. Brown of Charlestown; William E. Hatheway of Exeter; George A. Niles of Richmond; Jared G. Barber, Charles E. Kenyon of Hopkinton; James A. Sherman of Narragansett.

The petit jurors drawn are Samuel W. Greene, Charles A. Woods, Christopher C. Clark, Herbert C. West, George Easterbrook, Carver M. White, Leander W. Tucker, Thomas Russell, Walter E. Kingsley, James E. Arnold, Thomas Holworth, Irving T. Arnold, Martin Haggerty, Albertus W. Hazard of North Kingston; Joseph H. Church, James McKenzie, Peter R. Scott, Samuel M. Sharpe, Stephen W. Collins, Albert F. Williams, Aram Leibelwitz, James H. Blackler, Arthur E. Briggs of Westerly; Orrin Arnold, Joseph F. Kelley, 2d, of Charlestown; George H. Wells, John T. Willcox, of Exeter; George H. Goodhue, Isaac C. Ellis, of Richmond; George E. Hoxsie, Edward A. Gordon, Oscar F. Wells, William E. Hoxsie, of Westerly; Wilfred S. Congdon, Joseph E. Johnson, of Narragansett.

Humane Agent Reardon after warning Samuel Nardone to rest a horse that had two great sores covered by the collar when in harness, will now make provision for cruelty to an animal.

Officer Reardon's warning was not heeded. Saturday the team of Nardone was stopped in Dixon square by Agent Reardon and several citizens were asked to look at the condition of the horse. These men will

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Greenwich.—The Odd Fellows and Royal Arcanum are to have a carpet bowling match.

Middlebury.—Mrs. George Elliott died suddenly Thursday morning. She was 84 years old.

Milford.—Mrs. Mary Hepburn Smith has closed her summer home on River street and gone to Washington, D. C. for the winter.

New Haven.—Mayor-elect Frank J. Rice was among the 21 members initiated in Relief lodge at Odd Fellows hall last week.

Meriden.—The boys of St. Joseph's Society of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel church are making plans for the procession on Christmas day.

Hartford.—Hartford paid its share of the state tax last week, amounting to $49,484.94, and military commutation taxes amounting to $16,255.80.

Waterbury.—Mrs. Oscar W. Noble has been appointed delegate to represent the Waterbury Women's Federation of Women's clubs in Chelsea on Friday.

Torrington.—J. J. Clark, Peter Fitz-Henry and Harry Drinkwater, after three days of hunting in the Norfolk woods brought home 15 partridges, six woodcock, ten gray squirrels, twenty-four rabbits and a twenty-five pound coon.

New Britain.—The inscription to be engraved on the bronze tablet to be erected in memory of Rev. D. Miner Rogers, submitted to the highest of the Rogers family for their approval. Rapid progress is being made in collecting funds for the tablet.

Norwalk.—Walter S. Raymond and Samuel C. Ireland of South Norwalk are competing in a barrel race at Cannon Station, where they bagged three partridges, a gray squirrel and a chicken hawk which measured just five feet from tip to tip of wings.

South Manchester.—The headquarters of the First regiment, Connecticut National Guard, will soon be transferred from South Manchester to Hartford, for Colonel John Hickey, who has commanded the First regiment for the past three years, is going to move to Hartford.

Harwinton.—Walter Balch, son of W. S. Balch, went to New York to consult a specialist for curvature of the spine. He had a bad fall from ice in February when he hurt his back, but this was not considered serious at the time. Later he had had what was thought to be rheumatism.

Seriously Beclouded.

Those who took up for defense of Dr. Cook, trying to meet in detail the accusations or insinuations against him, have nearly all given up, except his chief advocate, the New York Herald, to which he gave his exclusive story. So far as his claim to have discovered the pole, or to have ascended to the top of Mount McKinley, is concerned the situation has resolved into a disgraceful and confusing mass of contradiction. The Montana town where Dr. Cook went to meet his accusers, Prints and Barrell, is incensed at the false reports sent out of a meeting in which the traveler and his customer met face to face, and gave the lie to each other in various slanderous exchanges, and has sent out what it calls the truth during the debate, after which the meeting expressed its approval of the two local assailants of the doctor. It is still practically

NORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Granville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that the Vegetable Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter."—MRS. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Granville, Vt.

Another medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, headache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life. It costs but little to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mountains of gold" to suffering women.

A number of young men from Westerly attended the Mother's Brindley dance in Barber hall, Ashaway, on Saturday night. For the accommodation of patrons a special trolley car left Ashaway for Westerly at midnight.

The third daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Scanlon was christened Anna by Rev. Peter Endrey in the church of the Immaculate Conception, Sunday afternoon. Leo Higgins was godfather and Miss Margaret Coughlin was godmother.

Mrs. Jonathan Maxson, in addition to receiving friends at her home in Elm street, Saturday, her ninetieth birthday, attended service at the Seventh-day Baptist church in the morning and addressed the younger members at the Sabbath school session.

Mrs. Amanda Wilbur, wife of Thomas H. Brown, who has been ill for the past four years, died Friday afternoon at her home in Chase street, Pawcatuck. Mrs. Brown was born in Stonington February 23, 1846, and on January 1 next would have been married forty years. She is survived by her husband, seven daughters and three sons.

Better as a Benedict.

The New Haven Leader thinks that when ex-Gov. McKim was a bachelor he never could have written such a tribute to "God's rarest blessing, a good woman," as he did in his D. A. P. address. But very likely the fact that he remained a bachelor for so many years, and that his change to a more blessed estate is so recent, gave warmth and color to the tribute.

The first bituminous coal mined in the United States was found near Richmond, Va., early in the eighteenth century.

Impossible to prove that Dr. Cook did not get to the pole or to the top of Mount McKinley, but his claims are so vigorously contested, the reasoning against him is so plausible and the matter is involved in such a mass of stuporific contradiction as to cloud his claims with doubt and drive most of his advocates and defenders to silence.—Waterbury American.

All She Asks.

Mrs. Hallam, vice president of the Iowa Suffrage association, said to-night: "All that I ask for is 500 women to stand with me and we can storm the Iowa legislature until we get something. We have worked for 20
